TASTING NOTES

SIGHT: Light red color, with pumpkin dye even vermilion and ruby reflections in thin layer. On a bright and clear surface.

NOSE: Wine kindly enough to give us a shameless herbaceous character. Intense aroma of blackcurrant sprouts and ripe forest fruits. Memories of anises.

MOUTH: Wine with sweet tooth that shows us the pleasantness of this variety. Tannin well worked with roasted notes, toast that lengthens the pleasant sensation in the mouth.
